Reducing the Stigma of Mental Health Through Active Support and Listening

An individual's path to experiencing homelessness can oftentimes be accompanied by a host of other concerns. Questions of where they will lay their head that night can be masked by worries of food insecurity, transportation troubles and even mental health issues.

The need for mental health services in homeless shelters is essential for assisting those in need with the tools to build brighter futures. That's why Northern Virginia Family Service implemented a mental health coordinator to work with guests in our shelters, as well as our Early Childhood Education programs.

We had the opportunity to chat with mental health coordinator Leslie Wilcox about her new role and its impact in uplifting both children and adults experiencing homelessness.

Behind the Scenes: Our Gala Silent Auction

NVFS offers many opportunities to get involved with our local community, including our special events. NVFS’ Road to Independence Gala is our largest event, and volunteers are an integral part of its success. Tina Yalen has been a driving force behind our incredible silent auction for years. Learn how she became involved in the event and what it means to her.

More Than 800 Packages Assembled for NVFS Clients
Thank you to Temple Rodef Shalom for volunteering with NVFS for its Good Deeds Day on April 15. The temple’s volunteer activity comprised assembling hygiene packs, birthday kits, care packages and summer activity kits, totaling more than 800 packages for our clients. We appreciate our continued partnership!

Cheers to Our Volunteers: April 2018

From bringing the coffee house to our SERVE Family Shelter to organizing our Thrift Shops to reading to our Head Start students, volunteers had an amazing impact on our clients last month. Thank you for all that you do to support NVFS’ efforts to create a stronger community for all.

Now is the time to be the change you wish to see in the world!

Donate to NVFS from Noon to Noon, Thursday, May 17 – Friday, May 18 for #DoMore24, the DMV’s largest online fundraiser.

Together, we can make a difference in Northern Virginia.

Just Between Friends — Consignment Benefit Friday and Saturday

We’re excited to be the beneficiaries of Just Between Friends Central Fairfax’s upcoming consignment sale on May 4-5! Clothes not sold at the event will be donated to NVFS’ Thrift Stores in Falls Church and Centreville. For information on tickets, shopping and selling with Just Between Friends, please see their website.

NVFS Winner of GMU’s Exemplary Community Partner Award

NVFS is excited to be the recipient of the Exemplary Community Partner Award from George Mason University’s Social Action and Integrative Learning (SAIL) Program. This award celebrates organizations that not only do great work in the community, but also serve as partners in education with Mason students and their organizations. We’re honored to be the recipients of this award and look forward to continuing to educate and engage Mason students through volunteer efforts and civic engagement.

Creating a CARE-ing Community

NVFS kicked off our CARE Awards process with our first virtual week of service to promote corporate social responsibility. Nearly a dozen companies and community partners across the region helped build a stronger Northern Virginia community through our collective service and partnership.

Is your company active in the community? Consider applying for a CARE Award.

Giving Thanks for Our Volunteers at Gratitude Grille

On Saturday, April 21, we celebrated our top-notch volunteers at our annual Gratitude Grille. We spotlighted our awardees and spent the day enjoying one another's company and indulging in a delicious meal, courtesy of Cabot Creamery, as well as spotlighting this year's award winners. Please visit our Facebook album for photos of the event.
