Child Abuse Prevention (Healthy Families) Services As a leader in the region, NVFS launched the first Healthy Families program in Northern Virginia and now operates in 5 local jurisdictions. First-time parents assessed as having significant barriers to successful parenting are linked prenatally with a family support social worker. The goal is to build strong parenting skills, ensure a healthy delivery, monitor developmental milestones, prevent child abuse and neglect, and to ensure that a child entering school is ready to learn and be successful. Parents are given the tools to succeed as parents in their own journey towards self-sufficiency. In FY17, 96% of the children met age-appropriate developmental milestones and were current on their immunizations. 94% of the mothers had at least 2 years between subsequent births.

(Code) (Expenses $ 2,652,271 including grants of $ 70,260) (Revenue $ 355,487)

Youth Initiatives and Multicultural Services Youth Initiatives Intensive case management services were provided to 1,594 youth and their parents to promote healthy families. As a result, 94% of gang-involved youth reduced their gang activity and 84% maintained or improved school performance. 98% indicated they had obtained new knowledge and skills that strengthened their family functioning. Multicultural Center Learning and adjusting are the two operative words that describe most people new to the United States. Whether immigrating by choice for better opportunities, or forced to flee here from another country, the same difficulties present themselves to the newcomer: language, culture and economics. Some are more prepared than others. Many, though, are in need of services and support that enable a successful transition for themselves and their families. The Multicultural Center offers a broad range of mental health, social, educational, health, and legal services geared to the unique values and characteristics of individuals and families from diverse cultures. NVFS' Multicultural Center is staffed by multi-ethnic, multilingual social workers, counselors, psychiatrists and graduate interns from local universities. Legal Services Provides legal consultation and representation to immigrants seeking legal status, U.S. citizenship, reunification with family members, or challenging deportation. All NVFS attorneys are experts in humanitarian immigration law, including asylum, "Convention Against Torture Protection", "Violence Against Women Act" applications for survivors of domestic violence, U visa applications for victims of violent crime, T visa applications for victims of human trafficking, and "Special Immigrant Juvenile Status" for children who were abused, abandoned, or neglected. All immigration services are offered for free or at low cost to clients. In FY17, approximately 1,700 legal cases were accepted by the NVFS legal team, 99% of these cases where a decision was made were approved. 46 clients became U.S. citizens and 72 clients became U.S. permanent residents.

Child Placement Services Foster Care Therapeutic Foster Care provides temporary, quality, family settings for children with special needs who may have experienced abuse and neglect. As a result, the children are given the opportunity to develop to their fullest potential. The program serves children from birth through age eighteen who have emotional, behavioral, physical or developmental needs that cannot be met in their own homes. NVFS social workers carefully match each child with an appropriate, trained foster family. Foster parents receive intensive, specialized training and emphasis is placed on recruiting from culturally diverse backgrounds. In FY17, foster care was provided to 68 children. 12 of these children were reunified with their families, 10 were adopted, and 15 additional adoptions are currently in process.

Workforce Development Services Training Futures Provides a 25-week curriculum focused on administrative/computer skills, along with special attention to preparation for office positions in the health care and Information Technology industries. Training Futures has received national recognition as a top-performing workforce development adult training program, annually exceeding national industry benchmarks. In FY17, 97% of trainees graduated. In addition, 64% of trainees also earned a Microsoft Office Certification. Of the trainees who graduated in June 2017, 74% (51 individuals) are employed in training-related jobs earning an average of $16.60 an hour (87% increase over pre-training wages). Escala This is an entrepreneurship program operated in Spanish, providing tools and training to help entrepreneurs launch small businesses. In FY17, Escala created 17 new businesses, 40 clients accessed loans to grow their businesses, and 48 clients received zero-interest loans through Lending Circles, improving their credit score with a 100% repayment rate. Vehicles for Change 70 cars were distributed to low-income families in FY17, ensuring working families had reliable transportation to get to their jobs, school, doctors' appointments, and child care. Workforce Development Services also include an employment pilot program which works in close collaboration with Housing Services to provide one-on-one employment and job development support to clients participating in NVFS' short-term housing subsidy program.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1	NVFS is dedicated to helping more than 35,000 individuals and families find new paths to self-reliance and brighter futures each year. With more than 450 employees and over 6,000 volunteers, NVFS offers programs in seven core service areas: Housing and Homelessness, Early Childhood Education, Child Abuse Prevention (Healthy Families), Child Placement (Therapeutic Foster Care, Respite and Adoption), Youth Initiatives and Multicultural Mental Health and Immigration Legal Services, Health Access and Nutrition, and Workforce Development. Each service area represents a set of programs, which result in positive outcomes for the clients and the community. NVFS partners with local governments, higher education institutions, public and private schools, foundations, civil and religious groups and other non-profit organizations to creatively and collaboratively address the multiple issues presenting barriers to families achieving economic independence. Of the clients who reported income to the agency, 95% had gross annual income at 200% or less of the federal poverty level. 32% served were children and youth under the age of 18.
