

In adherence to the Stevens Amendment and grant/contract-specific requirements, below is Northern Virginia Family Service’s (NVFS) acknowledgement of public awards for funding expended in FY23 (July 1, 2022 – June 30, 2023).

Anti-Hunger

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Anti-Hunger programs received $334,813.46 of federal money in FY23, representing 10.7% of the total Anti-Hunger budget. The remaining $2,784,010.13 (89.3%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Anti-Hunger programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Source: United States Department of Health and Human Services

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services, or the Virginia Department of Social Services.

Community In Reach

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Community In Reach programs received $1,028,622.74 of federal money in FY23, representing 97.8% of the total Community In Reach budget. The remaining $23,646.30 (2.2%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Community In Reach programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Sources: United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, United States Department of the Treasury (federal award #SLFRP0250 awarded to Prince William County by the United States Department of the Treasury and federal award #SLT-0722 awarded to Loudoun County by the United States Department of the Treasury)
- Local Source: Loudoun County

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Housing and Community Development, United States Department of the Treasury, the Virginia Department of Social Services, or Loudoun County.

Community Housing

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Community Housing programs received $3,845,886.07 of federal money in FY23, representing 53.2% of the total Community Housing budget. The remaining $3,383,573.22 (46.8%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Community Housing programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Sources: United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, United States Department of the Treasury (federal award number SLFRF0174 awarded to Fairfax County by the U.S. Department of the Treasury)
- State Source: Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development
- Local Sources: DC Department of Health (HIV/AIDS, Hepatitis, STD, and TB Administration), Fairfax County

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, United States Department of the Treasury, Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development, Virginia Department of Social Services, the DC Department of Health, or Fairfax County.

Early Childhood Services

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Early Childhood Education programs received $8,376,763.87 of federal money in FY23, representing 84.4% of the total Early Childhood Education budget. The remaining $1,549,244.09 (15.6%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Early Childhood Education programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Sources: United States Department of Agriculture, United States Department of Health and Human Services
- Local Source: Arlington County

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Agriculture, United States Department of Health and Human Services, or Arlington County.

Family Self-Sufficiency

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS' Family Self-Sufficiency Demonstration project received $171,617.00 of federal money in FY23, representing 100% of the total Family Self-Sufficiency Demonstration project budget.

This program is funded in full by the:

- Federal Source: United States Department of Health and Human Services

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government or the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

Health Access

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Health Access programs received $37,332.92 of federal money in FY23, representing 7.9% of the total Health Access budget. The remaining $436,475.24 (92.1%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Health Access programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Source: United States Department of Health and Human Services
- Local Sources: Fairfax Consolidated Community Funding Pool, Loudoun County, Prince William County

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services, Virginia Department of Social Services, Fairfax County, Loudoun County, or Prince William County.

Healthy Families

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Healthy Families programs received $1,352,044.50 of federal money in FY23, representing 33.0% of the total Healthy Families budget. The remaining $2,739,447.68 (67.0%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Healthy Families programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Source: United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services Healthy Families grant FAM21-083 and sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Health grants 705A210092 and 705BR2200120)
- Local Sources: City of Alexandria Fund for Human Services, City of Manassas, Arlington County, Fairfax County, Prince William County

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services, Virginia Department of Social Services, City of Alexandria, City of Manassas, Arlington County, Fairfax County, or Prince William County.

Homeless Services

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Homeless Services programs received $1,727,640.04 of federal money in FY23, representing 53.4% of the total Homeless Services budget. The remaining $1,505,123.51 (46.6%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Homeless Services programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Sources: United States Department of Agriculture, United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Homeland Security, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development
- State Sources: Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development, Virginia Housing
- Local Sources: City of Manassas, Prince William County

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Agriculture, United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Homeland Security, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development, Virginia Department of Social Services, Virginia Housing, City of Manassas, or Prince William County.

Multicultural Center

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Multicultural Center programs received $1,157,233.81 of federal money in FY23, representing 59.3% of the total Multicultural Center budget. The remaining $793,237.12 (40.7%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Multicultural Centers programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Sources: United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Justice (awarded by the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) grants #22-N5925VA21 and #23-O5925VA21, with funds made available to the Commonwealth of Virginia from the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice; by Fairfax County grants #2019-CY-AX-0006 and #15JOVW-22-GG-01073-CY, with funds made available to Fairfax County from the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice; and by Tahirih Justice Center grant #15POVC-21-GG-04198-HT, with funds made available to Tahirih Justice Center from the Office for Victims of Crime, U.S. Department of Justice), United States Department of the Treasury (federal award number SLFRF0174 awarded to Fairfax County by the U.S. Department of the Treasury)
- Local Sources: Fairfax County, Fairfax County Consolidated Community Funding Pool

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Justice, United States Department of the Treasury, Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services, Virginia Department of Social Services, or Fairfax County.

Work, Life, and Innovation

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Work, Life, and Innovation programs received $551,358.20 of federal money in FY23, representing 63.1% of the total Work, Life, and Innovation budget. The remaining $322,171.74 (36.9%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Work, Life, and Innovation programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Sources: United States Department of Agriculture, United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development
- Local Sources: County Board of Arlington, Fairfax County Consolidated Community Funding Pool

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Agriculture, United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Virginia Department of Social Services, Arlington County, or Fairfax County.

Youth Initiatives

Federal Funding Acknowledgment: NVFS Youth Initiatives programs received $905,595.05 of federal money in FY23, representing 32.7% of the total Youth Initiatives budget. The remaining $1,862,862.52(67.3%) was funded through non-federal sources.

Youth Initiatives programs are funded, in part, by the following public entities:

- Federal Sources: United States Department of Health and Human Services (awarded by the U.S. Committee for Refugees and Immigrants grant #90ZV0137-01-00 from the Office on Trafficking in Persons, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; by Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service grants #90ZU0318-03-00 and #90ZU0521, with funds made available to Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service from the Office of Refugee Resettlement, U.S. Department of Health and Human Resources; and by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration grant #H79SM084839)
- Local Sources: City of Alexandria, City of Alexandria Fund for Human Services, Arlington County, Fairfax County, Loudoun County, Prince William County

The contents presented by NVFS do not necessarily represent the official views of the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services, the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, City of Alexandria, Arlington County, Fairfax County, Loudoun County, or Prince William County.

