

Northern Virginia Family Services

3110 FAIRVIEW PARK DRIVE, SUITE 500 FALLS CHURCH, VA 22042

571.748.2500

www.nvfs.org

This public funding acknowledgment is in adherence to the Stevens Amendment and other grant/contract-specific requirements.

Below is Northern Virginia Family Services' (NVFS) acknowledgement of public awards for budgeted expenses in FY26 (July 1, 2025 – June 30, 2026) as of July 1, 2025.

Anti-Hunger

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' Anti-Hunger program is budgeted to receive $725,000.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant FAM-24-084), representing 22% of the total Anti-Hunger budget. The remaining $2,674,773.00 (78%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families), or the Virginia Department of Social Services.

Child and Family Wellbeing Services

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' Court Appointed Special Advocates program is budgeted to receive $92,364.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by City of Alexandria, Virginia Department of Social Services Promoting Safe and Stable Families funding) and the Department of Justice (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services grant 548483), representing 39% of the total Court Appointed Special Advocates program budget. The remaining $143,614.00 (61%) will be funded through non-federal sources.
 - Specific to the VA DCJS Subaward:
 - This project is supported by Subgrant No. 548483 awarded by the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services for the Office for Victims of Crime, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication/program/exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the state or the U.S. Department of Justice.
- NVFS' Family Programs are budgeted to receive $52,625.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant FAM-21-073-11), representing 36% of the total Family

Programs' budget. The remaining $95,500.00 (64%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families), United States Department of Justice (Office for Victims of Crime), Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services, Virginia Department of Social Services, City of Alexandria, or Arlington County.

Community Health

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS Community Health programs are budgeted to receive $185,456.33 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant FAM-24-O84) and the Department of the Treasury (federal award SLFRP2102 awarded to Loudoun County by the United States Department of the Treasury), representing 24% of the total Community Health budget. The remaining $590,711.70 (76%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families), United States Department of the Treasury, Virginia Department of Social Services, Virginia State Corporation Commission, Loudoun County, or Prince William County.

Community Housing

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' Emergency Solutions Grant program is budgeted to receive $295,346.59 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (sub-awarded by Fairfax County grant 4400013471), representing 50% of the Emergency Solutions Grant program budget. The remaining $291,418.41 (50%) will be funded through non-federal sources.
- NVFS' Rental Subsidies and Services program is budgeted to receive $8,973.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Agriculture (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant BEN-20-O17-O4), representing 0.3% of the Rental Subsidies and Services program budget. The remaining $3,000,000.00 (99.7%) will be funded through non-federal sources.
- NVFS' Housing Opportunities for Persons With Aids program is budgeted to receive $1,328,811.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Housing Opportunities for Persons With Aids program budget. The program is funded in full by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (sub-awarded by Northern Virginia Regional Commission).
- NVFS' Moving to Work and Step Ahead 2.0 programs are budgeted to receive $2,136,028.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Moving to Work and Step Ahead 2.0 program budgets. These programs are funded in full by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (sub-awarded by Fairfax County grant 4400009663).

- NVFS' Emergency Rental Assistance program is budgeted to receive $228,746.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Emergency Rental Assistance program budget. This program is funded in full by United States Department of the Treasury (federal award number SLFRF0174 awarded to Fairfax County by the U.S. Department of the Treasury).

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Agriculture (Food and Nutrition Service), United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, United States Department of the Treasury, Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development, the Virginia Department of Social Services, the DC Department of Health, or Fairfax County.

Community In Reach

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- The Community In Reach program is budgeted to receive $100,000.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant FAM-24-084), representing 65% of the total Community In Reach budget. The remaining $53,593.75 (35%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families), or the Virginia Department of Social Services.

Early Childhood Education

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS Early Childhood Education programs are budgeted to receive $8,500,639.75 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Departments of Agriculture (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Health) and Health and Human Services (grants O3CH012578 & O3HP000601 and sub-awarded by Loudoun County, Virginia Department of Social Services Promoting Safe and Stable Families funding), representing 71% of the total Early Childhood Education budget. The remaining $3,483,427.96 (29%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Agriculture (Food and Nutrition Service), United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families), or Arlington County.

Healthy Families

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' Healthy Families Alexandria program is budgeted to receive $289,939.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services Healthy Families grant FAM-24-072-17 and City of Alexandria, Virginia Department of Social Services Promoting Safe and Stable Families funding), representing 46% of the total Healthy Families Alexandria program budget. The remaining $340,653.00 (54%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

- NVFS' Healthy Families Arlington program is budgeted to receive $237,302.00 of federal money in FY24 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services Healthy Families grant FAM-24-072-18), representing 67% of the total Healthy Families Arlington program budget. The remaining $114,500.00 (33%) will be funded through non-federal sources.
- NVFS' Healthy Families Fairfax-MIECHV program is budgeted to receive $314,000.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Healthy Families Fairfax-MIECHV program budget. The program is funded in full by the Health Resources and Services Administration of the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Health grant 705A210092).
- NVFS' Healthy Families Loudoun program is budgeted to receive $366,162.78 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services Healthy Families grant FAM-24-072-20 and Loudoun County, Virginia Department of Social Services Promoting Safe and Stable Families funding) and the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (sub-awarded by Loudoun County, Community Development Block Grant funding), representing 68% of the total Healthy Families Loudoun program budget. The remaining $171,641.00 (32%) will be funded through non-federal sources.
- NVFS' Healthy Families Prince William program is budgeted to receive $664,990.25 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services Healthy Families grant FAM-24-072-19 and Prince William County, Virginia Department of Social Services Promoting Safe and Stable Families funding), representing 68% of the total Healthy Families Prince William program budget. The remaining $319,925.75 (32%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families and Health Resources and Services Administration), Virginia Department of Health, Virginia Department of Social Services, City of Alexandria, Arlington County, Fairfax County, Loudoun County, or Prince William County.

Homeless Services

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' SERVE Shelter and Rapid Re-Housing program are budgeted to receive $1,059,741.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Departments of Agriculture (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Health), Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant FAM-24-084), Homeland Security (sub-awarded by Prince William County), and Housing and Urban Development (sub-awarded by Prince William County), representing 27% of the total SERVE Shelter and Rapid Re-Housing program budget. The remaining $2,925,399.25 (73%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

- NVFS' Loudoun Cares Rental Assistance program is budgeted to receive $468,980.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Loudoun Cares Rental Assistance program. The program is funded in full by the United States Department of the Treasury (federal award SLFRP2102 awarded to Loudoun County by the United States Department of the Treasury).

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Agriculture (Food and Nutrition Service), United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families), United States Department of Homeland Security (Federal Emergency Management Agency), United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, United States Department of the Treasury, Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development, Virginia Department of Social Services, City of Manassas, or Prince William County.

Multicultural Center

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' Program for Survivors of Torture and Severe Trauma is budgeted to receive $321,091.00 of federal money in FY26 from the Department of Health and Human Services (grant 90ZTO222), representing 98% of the total Program for Survivors of Torture and Severe Trauma budget. The remaining $5,700.00 (2%) will be funded through non-federal sources.
- The Expanding Services for Children Exposed to Domestic and Sexual Violence program will be supported by Grant No. 15JOVW-22-GG-01073-CY awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice to Fairfax County (NVFS sub-award #4400011643). The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the U.S. Department of Justice.
- NVFS' HEAR Virginia program is budgeted to receive $218,469.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total HEAR Virginia program budget. The program is funded in full by the Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by George Mason University grant E2068093).
- NVFS' Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Prevention program is budgeted to receive $465,482.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault program budget. The program is funded in full by the Department of Health and Human Services (grant 90EVO611).
- NVFS' Virginia STOP Violence Against Women Act program will be supported by Grant No. 15JOVW-23-GG-00605-STOP and/or 15JOVW-24-GG-00546-STOP awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice to the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services (NVFS sub-award #24-O5925VA22). The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the U.S. Department of Justice.
- NVFS' Trauma Informed Lawyering Training and Technical Assistance program will be supported by Grant No. 15JOVW-22-GK-04036-MUMU awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice to Tahirih Justice Center (NVFS sub-award).

The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the U.S. Department of Justice.

- NVFS' Multicultural Center Immigration Legal Services Program will be supported by Grant No. 15JOVW-24-GG-00112-LEGA awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the U.S. Department of Justice.
- NVFS' mental health and case management programs are budgeted to receive $515,000.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant FAM-24-084), representing 41% of the total mental health and case management program budget. The remaining $735,901.08 (59%) will be funded through non-federal funds.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families), United States Department of Justice (Office on Violence Against Women), Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services, Virginia Department of Social Services, or Fairfax County.

Workforce Development

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' Training Futures program is budgeted to receive $331,692.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant FAM-24-084 and Fairfax County grant 4400012692) and United States Department of Agriculture (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant BEN-20-017-04), representing 43% of the total Training Futures program budget. The remaining $431,547.00 (57%) will be funded through non-federal sources.
- NVFS' Escala program is budgeted to receive $125,753.00 of federal money in FY26 from the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by the Virginia Department of Social Services grant FAM-24-084) and the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (sub-awarded by Arlington County), representing 60% of the total Escala program budget. The remaining $84,538.00 (40%) will be funded through non-federal sources.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Agriculture (Food and Nutrition Service), United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families), United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Virginia Department of Social Services, Arlington County, or Fairfax County.

Youth Initiatives

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' Safe Release Support Services program is budgeted to receive $276,095.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Safe Release Support Services program. The program is funded in full by the United States Department of Health and Human Services (sub-awarded by Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service, Inc. dba Global Refuge grant 358-25-00).

- NVFS' Violence Prevention and Intervention Program – SAMHSA is budgeted to receive $488,255.00 in federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the Violence Prevention and Intervention Program – SAMHSA. The program is funded in full by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration within the United States Department of Health and Human Services (grant 5H79SMO84839).
- NVFS' Intervention, Prevention, and Education program – OJJDP will be supported by Grant No. 15PJDP-24-GG-02347-GJSX awarded by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the U.S. Department of Justice.

The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government, United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families and Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration), United States Department of Justice (Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention), City of Alexandria, Arlington County, Fairfax County, Loudoun County, or Prince William County.

Special Initiatives

Federal Funding Acknowledgment:

- NVFS' Family Self-Sufficiency Demonstration project is budgeted to receive $74,187.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Family Self-Sufficiency Demonstration project budget. The project is funded in full by the United States Department of Health and Human Services (grant 9OPE0075). The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government or the United States Department of Health and Human Services (Administration for Children and Families).
- NVFS' Childcare Fee Reduction Program project is budgeted to receive $404,450.00 of federal money in FY26, representing 100% of the total Childcare Fee Reduction Program budget. The project is funded in full by the United States Department of the Treasury (federal award SLFRP2102 awarded to Loudoun County by the United States Department of the Treasury). The contents presented by NVFS are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, the United States Government or the United States Department of the Treasury.